

...IS DEDICATED TO HER MAJESTY...

Small informational sign or plaque on the wall, partially visible, containing text and a small image.

Small informational text block next to the paintings.

NEW KINGDOM

The country of the Nile is the heart of the New Kingdom. The Nile river is the lifeblood of the country and the source of its wealth. The Nile is the longest river in the world and is the only one to flow north. The Nile is the source of the country's food and the source of its power. The Nile is the source of the country's life and the source of its death.

The New Kingdom is the most powerful and most prosperous period in Egyptian history. It is the time of the great empires of Egypt and the time of the great temples and palaces. The New Kingdom is the time of the great pharaohs and the time of the great achievements of Egypt. The New Kingdom is the time of the great art and the time of the great literature of Egypt.

Architectural drawings and text on the right side of the panel.

